On a separate paper, please provide information on your qualifications/credit that covers the areas listed below.

1. Provide a resume or biographical sketch that may include, but is not limited to:
  - Curricular activities (awards, honors, exceptional course projects)
  - Extra-curricular activities:
    - On-campus: Involvement in clubs, organizations, honor societies, advocacy groups, service/leadership organizations, athletics, and/or student government.
    - Off-campus: Socio-political organizations, internships, seminars, workshops, service organizations, and/or religious organizations.
  - Current employment and work history
2. Write or type a two-page (maximum) position paper describing what you feel is the most pressing or critical issue facing the Criminal Justice system today. It must be computer generated, printed in black ink, with one-inch margins, and in a 12-point "Times New Roman" font.
3. Take this questionnaire to your Criminal Justice Program Director to determine if your institution is eligible for an AJEA scholarship. If needed, contact Clayton Kidd at cakidd@asu.edu for a list of members.

I attest that _____ is a currently-enrolled Criminal Justice major and meets the AJEA scholarship criteria.
